

"The HfS Sourcing Executive Council experience has provided a tremendous opportunity to be a part of changing the dynamics of this industry, and I have no doubt that HfS' efforts will go a long way to enhancing the value of global services."

Steven Jo, Head of Multisourcing, Silicon Valley Bank

HfS Sourcing Executive Council Membership

WE KNOW THE NETWORK

The HfS Sourcing Executive Council is represented by a dynamic range of industries. The following companies represent a sampling of our membership:

The foundation of HfS services is membership to the HfS Sourcing Executive Council, a private, members-only group designed to foster networking, debate and the exchange of best practices among the industry's leading buy-side services professionals. With over one trillion dollars in market cap and well over 20 billion in annual outsourcing spend, this peer group represents the most sophisticated buyers in the world for global business and IT services.

With a Sourcing Executive Council membership, you will garner enterprise access to HfS research and data, participate in members-only webcasts and teleconferences, engage HfS analysts in monthly advisory sessions and enjoy complimentary access to HfS spring and fall summits. HfS Sourcing Executive Council summits are considered the most prestigious in the sourcing industry, renowned for intense "behind closed doors" debate, superlative research, content and networking opportunities for the global sourcing elite.
